

Flag lowering for Annapolis shooting victims

This morning President Trump ordered American flags at all U.S. government buildings and facilities be flown at half-staff beginning immediately until sunset today , as a mark of solemn respect for the victims of the terrible act of violence perpetrated on June 28, 2018 in Annapolis MD.

In concurrence with the President's order and as an expression of Delaware's sympathy for those affected by this incident, Governor Carney has ordered the American and Delaware flags at state buildings and facilities also be flown at half staff today. Flags should be returned to full staff at the close of business today.
